

Stakeholder Analysis Matrix Template

Stakeholder	Role in Project Process	Relationships	Interest	Power importance/influence	Impact	Strategies
Residents of Alviso	They have an active role in the project process. They are affected by the conditions in Alviso, like flooding and other community development or preservation. They also engage in hearings and meetings about what is being planned for the town.	Community members who are in communication with the other stakeholders and are part of most discussions.	High Support and Neural Participation	High Importance/Low Influence	Positive	Highlight the problems and concerns they have with in the town that would need fixing or any resources that are lacking for them. This way the residents can help with solutions they think can help their community.
City of San Jose	This is the city government that must be notified when projects or changes or improvements occur in Alviso. They are the main planning, zoning,	Every project and service must communicate the actions they wish to implement after talking to the city. The residents would also have to communicate their concerns to the	Neutral Support and Neutral Participation	High Importance/ High Influence	Positive	Provide resources and opportunities to help the community members and the environmental life stay happy and healthy by implementing and authority for projects in Alviso.	City of San Jose and accepted before anything can be started.				projects to protect the town.

U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service	Issues permit based on wildlife laws with one of the areas being Don Edwards San Francisco Bay National Wildlife Refuge.	Has been working with Valley Water, the State Coastal Conservancy and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) on the Phase 1 construction for South San Francisco Bay Shoreline Project.	High Support and High Participation	High Importance/High Influence	Positive	Highlight and protect the wildlife and people in the town by building protective barriers.
County of Santa Clara	Working on the health services, roads, and planning that Alviso gets affected by that are related to public health, environmental compliance, along with other areas. One of the main areas they focus on is the Alviso Marina County Park as well as the San Francisco Bay	Every project needs to also go through the County of Santa Clara to get okay to start the project.	Neutral Support and Neutral Participation	High Importance/ High Influence	Positive	Highlight the importance of public health and environmental compliance in the projects that occur in Alviso.

	Trail and San Francisco Bay Area Water Trail which are a part of Don Edwards San Francisco Bay National Wildlife Refuge.
Santa Clara Valley Water District	Working on the South San Francisco Bay Shoreline Project to help provide flood protection and restore salt ponds as well as help improve access to the public in Alviso. They work on planning, permitting, design, construction, and implementation of the project.	This project is a part of Santa Clara Valley Water District and are partnered with U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, California State Coastal Conservancy, and the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. It also needs permitting from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Services, County of Santa Clara, and City of San Jose.	High Support and High Participation	High Importance/High Influence	Positive	Highlight, restore, and preserve the salt pond and wetlands for the environment to flourish once again.

High Importance/Low Influence Residents of Alviso	High Importance/ High Influence City of San Jose County of Santa Clara U.S. Fish and Wildlife
---	---

	Santa Clara Valley Water District
Low Importance/Low Influence	Low Importance/High Influence